

sisters as we should be

Ah, my sister, it's good to see you after all this time.
I've been thinking 'bout how hard our climb has been,

going separate ways, but knowing that we always had a friend and hoping I'd be meeting you again.

My sister, it's good to see how time has been so kind when I thought I'd never hear from you no more.
Funny, how you just knocked on my door.

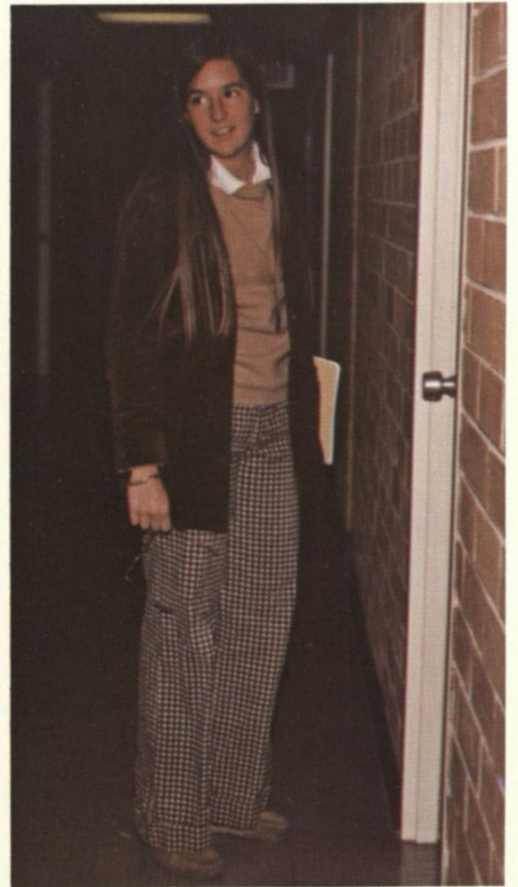

I'm a drifter, who's better having all the past behind.
I've been thinking with my head and not my heart.

And I've learned that if you come too close, you've got to come apart.
And I've made one too many starts . . .

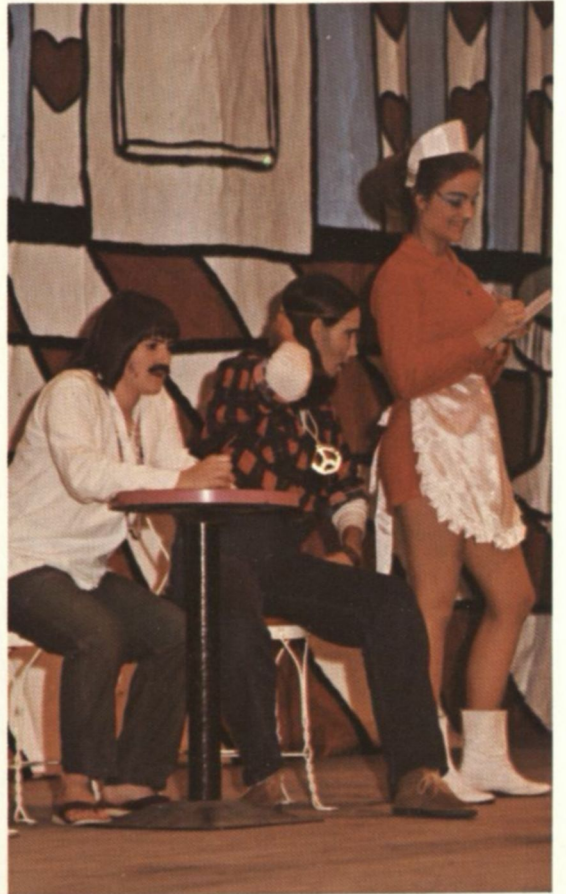

But,
ah,
my sister,
your color
is growing stronger
everyday.

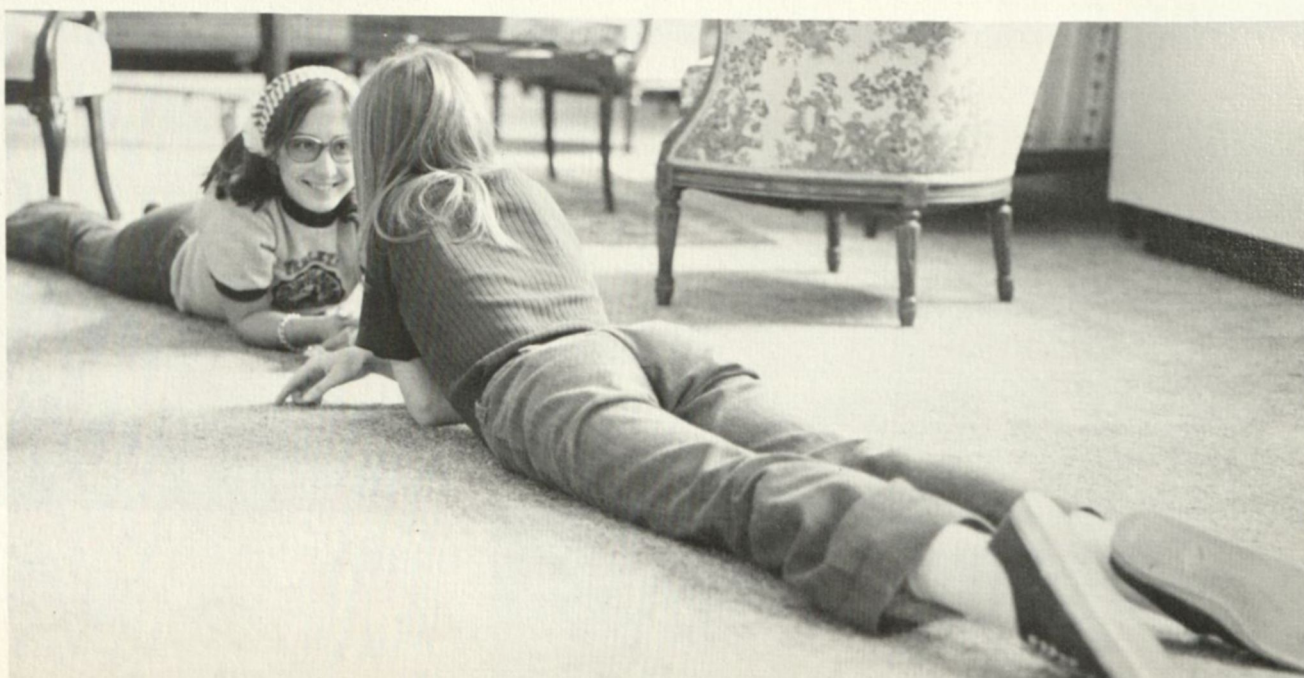

Like a photograph that's in my memory,
Funny how you make a child of me.

Ah, my sister, it's good to see you after all this time . . .
Passing through my life, that brightens up my day.

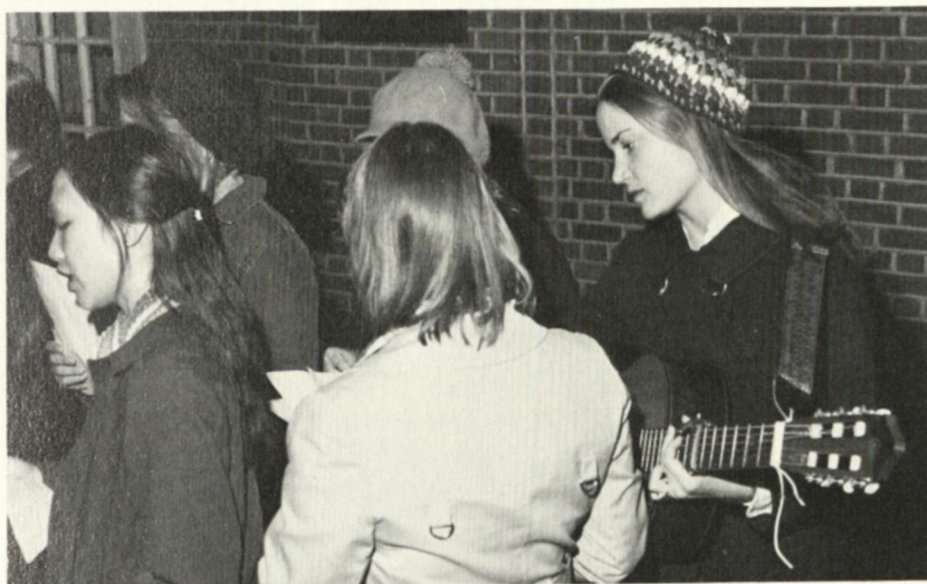

Though we know you'll soon be on your way . . .

'cause no matter how we try to keep it high,
funny how we make each other cry.

To one who has been with us only a short time,
yet has won a place in all our hearts.
To one who sincerely cares about his students both in and out of the classroom.
To one who has shared with us his time, his family,
his enthusiasm and most of all himself.

To one who has a Heart of Gold.
To Dr. Jacob Quiambao
we, the class of 1975, dedicate this Veterropt.

Nominated by students and selected by faculty, she has been outstanding in mass communications and personal interaction in many phases of campus life. As much a teacher as a student, her determination to meet all obligations with a smile is aided by a readiness to see each new situation for its true worth.

THEME SONG

You and me against the world
 Sometimes it feels like
 you and me against the world
 When all the others turn their backs and walk away, you can count on me to stay.
 Remember all the Stunts that we went through?
 Remember Rat and soccer, too?
 Wasn't it nice to be around good friends that you knew?
 Pirates, Knights, and Golden Hearts,
 all looking out for you.
 Then when some of us are gone and some of you are left to carry on Then remembering will have to do
 Our memories alone will get us through Think about the days of me and you
 You and me against the world.

In memory of Edgar Albert "Ted" Eschmann, Jr. (1914-1975) who served Wesleyan from 1960-1974 as Instructor in Natural Sciences and Physics and later as Registrar, and to whom the Veterropt was dedicated in 1965 as follows:

"Because of his integrity, fairness and unbiased understanding,
he exemplifies what we feel must be the ideal teacher.
Because of his quiet wisdom, versatility, and deep commitment to what is right, he represents manhood in its perfection.
Because we love and respect him, and because he is dedicated to us, we, the Senior Class of 1965, dedicate this yearbook to . . . MR. E.A. ESCHMANN, JR."

Compliments of the Veterropt sisterhood is winning at soccer

being out in front

class time

play time

mixers and dances 'till after two people and places

familiar faces

working for a winning stunt looking around for that one last time

something we've learned at last to find

we found it here.

TO OUR LITTLE SISTER TRI-K'S:
 Sometimes, not often enough, we reflect upon the good things and our thoughts often center around those we love.

And we think about those people who mean so much to us and for so many years have made us so very happy
 and we count the times we've forgotten to say, Thank you . . .
 And just how much we love them . . .
 from the Golden Hearts

Retiring after 13 years of service to Wesleyan, Educator, teacher, friend . . .
Dr. Horace B. Gray

Retiring after 26 years of service to Wesleyan, Mrs. Edna R.
Crawford was Secretary to the Academic Dean for 18 years, Secretary to the Chaplain for 4 years, and Post Office Clerk for 4 years. She received the Student Government
Distinguished Service Award.

Let me but live my life from year to year,
With forward face and unreluctant
soul.
Not hurrying to, nor turning from
the goal;

Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils;

Mercedes McCambridge — Commencement Speaker

But with a whole and happy heart,
That pays its toll to youth and age,
And travels on with cheer.

— Robert Browning

Special thanks to Bill Wolfe, Don Williams, Joyce Schafer, Deborah Bell, Gloria McIntosh, Carolyn Bowman, and Melanie Showalter.

In carrying out the 1975 Vetteropt's
theme of sisterhood and friendship, I hope this yearbook portrays the most unique qualities of Wesleyan — the spirit of sisterhood and the close friendships made at Wesleyan.

For their unified effort and many long hours, my sincerest thanks go to my staff members. I would also like to thank my close friends for their support.
